

JORDAN

BECAUSE OF YOU,
REFUGEES ARE EXPERIENCING JESUS' LOVE

A year ago, Nabil fled his war-torn country of Yemen to Jordan, where he couldn't get a job because of strict Jordanian employment laws. Unemployed and with two children to feed, Nabil was desperate.

Jake, an Alliance worker you sent, connected with Nabil through the Alliance community center where he was studying English. Learning of Nabil's situation, Jake began paying him monthly to clean his language center. Then Nabil's son got appendicitis; the hospital would not operate unless the surgery was paid for up front. Jake and other Alliance workers quickly raised the funds for the emergency operation.

Nabil told Jake, "You Christians have shown me a love I have never experienced before. How do I get that same kind of love?"

Jake has since invited Nabil and another friend to his home weekly for dinner, coffee, and Bible study. A year ago, Nabil had many doubts and questions about the Bible and Christianity. Now he studies the Bible and is drawn to Jesus, especially after He recently appeared to Nabil in a dream!

Because you give, Jake is able to remain on the field where he is caring for people like Nabil and his family while sharing about Jesus. Join us in praying for Nabil to accept the gospel!
