

The Church of Revelation - Laodicea

Revelation 3:14-22

In Laodicea, Jesus is challenging an attitude of self-sufficiency

Jesus' focus isn't on the discipline as much as it is on the _____ of their _____

Not only will Jesus share a meal with His followers, He intends to share His throne

Jesus says we're to buy from Him because it _____ us

The "cost" isn't related to our sacrifice. It's about changing our attitude

Jesus loves you too much to condone you being satisfied with anything but His _____

KNEES AND FEET (Prayer and Action): Ask the Holy Spirit to guide you to a change of mind and action.

What is the Spirit saying in your heart today? Are there areas of your life that you need to trust Jesus fully with? What would that look like for you? What steps do you need to take to "open the door" to Jesus and settle in with your good friend?

Please remember that Jesus doesn't love you based on how well you are doing; He doesn't rebuke you because He's angry with you. Do you need to reframe a rebuke from Jesus in order to see it as His great, uncompromising love for you?
